- The Celebration of the Lord's Passion on Good Friday, including the Word liturgy, the Solemn Intercessions, the Veneration of the Cross and communion from the reserved sacrament.

- The Easter Vigil (the first and greatest Mass of Easter) on Holy Saturday night: including the lighting of the fire and the lighting of and procession with the Paschal Candle, leading to the sung Easter Proclamation (the Exsultet); the Liturgy of the Word; the liturgy of Baptism; and the Liturgy of the Eucharist.

Dear Friends,

Do you understand Holy Week? This note offers an overview of the liturgies of Holy Week. I hope you'll have a better understanding of Holy Week after reading this note but you'll only begin to truly understand Holy Week by participating in its liturgies.

In the week we call holy, the Church celebrates the most ancient and beautiful rites in her spiritual heritage. These are the most important days of the whole church year, even though they don't get tagged as "holy days of obligation."

Holy Week begins with Palm Sunday. This year we will bless palms in the hall and then singing and waving our palms we will walk over to the church to begin the holiest week of the year. We commemorate the Lord's Entrance into Jerusalem and at this Mass each year, the story of the suffering of death of Jesus is recounted in the gospel. This year we will hear the Passion according to St. Mark. This story is proclaimed on only two days of the year: Palm Sunday and Good Friday.

Lent ends at sundown on Thursday of Holy Week and we enter the Paschal Triduum (means 3 days). The Triduum is one feast, celebrated over three days. The "three days" are numbered from sundown Holy Thursday to sundown Good Friday; from sundown Good Friday to sundown Holy Saturday; and from sundown Holy Saturday to sundown Easter Sunday. The liturgical moments of that one feast are:

- The Evening Mass of the Lord's Supper on Thursday, including the Washing of Feet and the procession with the Eucharist to the altar of repose in the hall. Prayer before the reserved sacrament may continue until 10 pm.

Paschal joy overflows in the celebration of the Eucharist on Easter Sunday morning.

Yes, these liturgies are lengthy but they are also rich and beautiful in symbol, ritual, prayer, and song. It is a shame that many Catholics go to their graves without ever having celebrated the most important feasts of their faith!

Know that you are invited to celebrate this great Paschal feast with us here at St. Anthony! Set aside these hours to give thanks and praise to the One who set aside his life for us that we might have forgiveness of our sins and the gift of God's peace.

~Father Felix

PLEASE PRAY FOR OUR BEGINNING CATHOLIC CANDIDATE, JENNIFER SCHAUER — My name is Jennifer Schauer. I am in the RCIA program at St. Anthony's Parish. I am studying to receive the sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation and Holy Eucharist. My family and I started attending St. Anthony's Parish last year. As a child and a young woman in college I was always curious about religion.

In graduate school I had a dream I had a baby boy, which changed my life. I left graduate school, met my husband and I believe that God led me to St. Anthony's, where I have been able to enrich my spiritual education and connect with God in a deeper, more meaningful way.

I grew up in Forestville, CA. I studied molecular biology at UCSC and received an M.S. degree. After college I worked in the biotech field as a research associate and met my husband. I have 2 children, Aidan (8 years) and Olivia (5 years). By the grace of God, I was able to quit my job and stay home after the birth of my daughter. Now that they are both in school, I have started to work as an elementary yard supervisor at their school in Novato.

Living in Novato has been a true blessing. We have a great neighborhood and St. Anthony's has been a wonderful experience for our family. My husband and I love discussing the homily after Mass and the kids love attending the children's liturgy. You can see Olivia skipping down the aisle holding the Gospel on most Sundays. Aidan is attending Faith Formation and we all love Liz!
