Sunday Children’s Liturgy of the Word~

This past Sunday, a Children’s Liturgy was lead by Jean Mariani outside in the beautiful sunshine.

Summer Fellowship & Services Event

Last Saturday a group of young parishioners and parents met with our coordinator Nicole Allaire to make lunches for the homeless. A nice group turned out putting the lunches together and then had some fun with water balloons! Thank you to all who participated, and thank you to all who donated food for the event.

Introductory Rites of the Mass The Greeting

(A series provided by Edward Sri's book, A Biblical Walk Through the Mass)

Priest: The Lord be with you

People: And with your spirit.

The greeting, "The Lord be with you" is no ordinary greeting. This is not at all like an exchange in which the priest says, "Good morning," and the people respond, "And good morning to you, too, Father!" If we truly understood the Scriptural background to these words, we might approach the liturgy with more fear and trembling.

Jesus said that "when two or three are gathered in my name, there am I in their midst" (Mt 18:20). This liturgical greeting also expresses the profound reality of God's life dwelling within our souls by virtue of our baptism. With these words, the priest is praying that the divine life we received may continue to grow within us. It also recalls the words spoken to a whole roster of heroes from the Bible who were called by God to a daunting mission—a mission that stretched the individual beyond his comfort zone and forced him to rely on God as never before.

Do you ever feel stretched or overwhelmed with the demands of life? Do you ever feel inadequate for the mission God has entrusted to you whether it be in your marriage, in your family, in your work, or in living your Catholic Faith? As God's children, we each have a particular mission to fulfill in the Father's plan. Each of us has a role that no one else can play. These words assure us that we have access to a higher power that can support us through the trials and challenges of life and help us be faithful in whatever task God has entrusted to us. We can trust that God's strength will make up for whatever in us is lacking.

As for the new translation of our response, "and with your spirit," the people are acknowledging the Holy Spirit's unique activity through the priest during the sacred liturgy by virtue of his ordination. People are addressing the "spirit" of the priest; that is that deepest interior part of his being where he has been ordained precisely to lead the people in this sacred action. They are saying in effect, "Be the priest for us now," aware that there is only one priest, Christ Himself, and that this one who represents him now must be finely tuned to perform his sacred duties well.

Visiting Priest and his Missionary Work~

This weekend, July 6-7, Father Michael Strange will be speaking at our Masses about the missionary work of the Sulpician Fathers in Zambia. The Sulpician Fathers are a Society of Priests dedicated to priestly formation. They are in charge of the Emmaus Spirituality Centre in Lusaka, Zambia, where young men begin their seminary journey to priesthood in this African country.

The second collection for the Missionary Cooperative Plan will help support this ministry of seminary formation. The Sulpicians, the Zambian Church, as well as the Zambian seminarians, will be grateful for your prayers and support.

Please Note: Fr. Morgan will be on vacation from July 1—July 31st.

Dear Friends~

Thank you for your wholehearted support of the letter writing campaign opposing Senate Bill 360 protecting the confidentiality of the confessional. We collected over 200 letters from you, which have been forwarded to the Archdiocese. As American citizens and Catholics, you spoke up for your religious freedom.

Thank you,
Fr. Felix
