A NOTE FROM FR. FELIX

Dear Friends,

Coronaviruses are a large family of viruses that are known to cause illnesses ranging from the common cold to more severe diseases, such as the Middle East Respiratory Syndrome (MERS) and Sever Acute Respiratory Syndrome (SARS). The 2019-novel coronavirus (2019-nCoV or COVID-19) has been identified to be the cause of severe pneumonia in China. The majority of cases have occurred in China but cases have been exported to other countries, including the United States and Singapore, where I was for three weeks from January 20th through February 8th.

Upon my return to St. Anthony, I was informed that several members of our community were concerned that I might be carrying the virus even though I am not showing any flu symptoms nor have I been to mainland China in recent years. Notwithstanding, due to the fact that we are an older community, I have decided to undergo a self-quarantine for a period of two weeks, from February 10th through 23rd.

I am grateful that Fr. Dan Maguire, retired pastor of St. Thomas in San Francisco, has kindly agreed to cover all Masses and Confessions for me during this period.

Let us pray for all those suffering from the coronavirus and all other forms of illnesses.

Fr. Felix

SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
February 16, 2020

1st Reading: A Reading from the Book of Sirach (Sirach 15:15-20 (76A))

If you choose you can keep the commandments, they will save you; if you trust in God, you too shall live; he has set before you fire and water; to whichever you choose, stretch forth your hand. Before man are life and death, good and evil, whichever he chooses shall be given him. Immense is the wisdom of the Lord; he is mighty in power, and all-seeing. The eyes of God are on those who fear him; he understands man’s every deed. No one does he command to act unjustly, to none does he give license to sin.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

2nd Reading: A reading from the first Letter of Saint Paul to the Corinthians (1 Corinthians 2:6-10)

Brothers and sisters: We speak a wisdom to those who are mature, not a wisdom of this age, nor of the rulers of this age who are passing away. Rather, we speak God’s wisdom, mysterious, hidden, which God predetermined before the ages for our glory, and which none of the rulers of this age knew; for, if they had known it, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory. But as it is written: What eye has not seen, and ear has not heard, and what has not entered the human heart, what God has prepared for those who love him, this God has revealed to us through the spirit. For the Spirit scrutinizes everything, even the depths of God.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation (cf. Matthew 11:25)

“Al-le-lu-ia, al-le-lu-ia, al-le-lu-ia.” (sung)

Blessed are you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth; you have revealed to little ones the mysteries of the kingdom.

Gospel: (Matthew 5:17-37 or 5:20-22a,27-28,33-34a,37)

The Lord be with you.
And with your spirit.
A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew Glory to you, O Lord.

Jesus said to his disciples: I tell you, unless your righteousness surpasses that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will not enter the kingdom of heaven. “You have heard that it was said to your ancestors, You shall not kill; and whoever kills will be liable to judgment. But I say to you, whoever is angry with his brother will be liable to judgment.

“You have heard that it was said, You shall not commit adultery. But I say to you, everyone who looks at a woman with lust has already committed adultery with her in his heart.

“Again you have heard that it was said to your ancestors, Do not take a false oath, but make good to the Lord all that you vow. But I say to you, do not swear at all. Let your ‘Yes” mean ‘Yes, and your ‘No’ mean ‘No.’ Anything more is from the evil one.

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.
